

FIT FOR GERMANY INTERCULTURAL TRAINING GERMANY

Target Group

Foreign executives and employees who

- work and live in Germany
- have accompanying spouses
- cooperate with German business partners/colleagues
- regularly travel to Germany on business

Objectives

- gaining insight into the dynamics of intercultural cooperation
- comprehending German culture and how it influences mindset and communication patterns
- learning basic facts about German society
- developing strategies for successful contact with German business partners and colleagues
- understanding everyday life in Germany

Methods

This seminar will provide you with practical applications. We employ case studies, role-plays, discussions, individual and group assignments and other interactive methods.

Trainer

Sarah Kuhnert studied Linguistics, English and Philosophy at the University of Cologne and Universidad de Sevilla, Spain. After graduating, she worked for a number of years as a project manager for an international online language course provider. There she developed language training for a US relocation service provider. Ms. Kuhnert has been employed by Carl Duisberg Centren since 2016, initially in the Professional Training Programs department, where she organized tailor-made programs for international manager delegations. After obtaining the trainer certification, she switched to the intercultural training department.
